

Tartars Lose to Jordan in Practice Game

By HARVEY ABBAMSON

Last Friday the Torrance varsity had its first practice game against Jordan of Watts. The final score of 7 to 0 in favor of Jordan does not tell the whole story of Coach Robert Barr's initial effort with his Tartars.

Ken Perkin started the game by kicking off for Torrance, after Ray Riechhart, Tartar captain, won the toss. On the Tartars' third play, Perkin attempted a field goal from the 25-yd. line, but it fell short.

A Jordan drive, which started when Duke, fullback, made a beautiful 25-yd. run was stopped when the Jordan boys were penalized 15 yards for clipping. This was the only major penalty of the game, although Jordan lost ten yards and Torrance five because of offside penalties. The half ended with the ball in mid-field and a scoreless tie.

Perkin's Kick Good

Torrance kicked off again in the second half, and Marvin Boettcher recovered Myers' fumble on the 35-yd. line, when he was hit hard on the first play. The Tartars lost the ball on downs, and a kicking battle started with Torrance getting a slight edge.

Late in the third period Jordan got a break when they recovered a free ball on the Torrance two-yd. line. On the third down Horn went over for a touchdown, and Myers crashed through for the extra point, the only score of the afternoon.

Torrance got into a hole a couple of times in the last quarter but Perkin, who did some fine kicking, and the ends, who were running down under them very fast, kept Jordan back in its territory. One of Perkin's kicks was good for 55 yards. Late in the game Torrance began to drive for Jordan's goal, but was stopped by a determined Jordan eleven, backed by Myers who was superlative on defense.

Tartars Showing Plenty of Fight

Practice scrimmages being what they are—lacking the incentive of a regular period game—observers watching the Torrance high school varsity in action against Mt. Carmel's gridderies here Tuesday afternoon could not get much information on the progress Coach Robert Barr is making with the Tartars. However, the sidelines got several eye-fuls of a new kind of aggressive spirit which had almost faded to extinction here since the departure of Coach Bernie Donahue.

The Tartars show a welcome willingness to make it rough and take it the same way. The line was showing possibilities of being a bulwark of power when the Marine league season gets under way Friday afternoon, Oct. 21 with Torrance scrapping Gardena on the local greensward. There were flashes of some good blocking, testimony.

Harriers Training at Narbonne High

Seventeen Narbonne high school track men are training for cross country events this fall under Coach Wayne Schloss. Two meets are scheduled with Torrance high, the first to be held between halves of the Torrance-Narbonne football game at Lomita, Nov. 4; two with Woodrow Wilson high and one with Long Beach

The Herald's Sport Page

Home Run Beats Oilers

A home run in the final inning by Shortstop Olsen gave the Torrance-Lomita Merchants the one-run margin by which they beat the Richfield Oilers 3 to 2 last Sunday at the city park diamond. Olsen was the first man up in the ninth for the Merchants and his long range bingle broke the tie that the Oilers had forced in the fifth inning.

Next Sunday the Merchants take on the R.K.O. studio nine here. In the last engagement between these two teams, the local nine won 2 to 1. Sam Oliver, Manager Walt Morris' newly-acquired pitcher, performed well and the fans appeared to enjoy his work. He held the Oilers to seven scattered hits while the Merchants were collecting three from Ferguson.

Gauchos Ready for Grid Wars

Unleashing some power and passing plays that revived memories among Gauchos supporters of "the days when" Narbonne high school football teams were taking all comers in their fall strides, Coach Bill Sloan's 1938 Lomita machine crushed Woodrow Wilson high 27 to 6 last week in a practice game. The Gauchos are taking on Mt. Carmel high in practice scrimmage tomorrow afternoon.

Sloan has his varsity cocked and primed for the opening game with Banning on Oct. 21 at the Banning field. He has a line that averages 175 pounds and a tricky backfield combination of two veterans, a last year's Class B player and a newcomer to the game that averages 165 pounds.

Injuries and accidents have made a dent in Sloan's hopes but the team as he has it lined up now appears to have suffered but little by necessary substitutions. Sloan has about decided on the following combination for his regular first string:

Jack Sedan, left end, 155 pounds, letterman; C. B. Benbow, left tackle, 190, letterman; Henry Binkley, left guard, 180, letterman; Dale Cloud, center substitution for Archie Ahrendes whose injuries will keep him out of the opening game. Cloud weighs 165 pounds and he is a new player. Ahrendes tips the beam at 190 pounds and he earned his letter last year. Driscoll Truitt is the choice for right tackle, 180, and a letterman. Paul Meacham completes the line at right end, weighing 100, and is a peagreen.

TO SURVEY SLOUGH

One Point Margin Wins Big Game Football Ducats in Herald Contest

After nearly burning out a bearing on the office adding machine and giving three staff members an attack of brain cramps, The Herald announces on the Football Contest page the name of the winner of two ducats to the U.S.C.-Washington State game at Los Angeles Coliseum.

(Turn now to that page to find his name because Ray Brooks, Herald advertising manager, has threatened dire misfortune on the sports editor if it is published here! However, he did not have room enough on the Football Contest Page to give a complete survey of the results and they are herewith cribbed from him.)

A mere matter of one point deprived Mrs. Mabel Haarer of 1217 Beech avenue from tying with the winner and also getting a couple of good ducats to the U.S.C.-Washington State game. The winner's differential score was 330 while Mrs. Haarer showed more than 75 male Grid Prophets she's a better scorecaster than they were!

Three "Perfect Picks"

Each of the two leaders picked all but three winning teams and each tabbed a game "right on the nose." In third place with a differential of 390 was Louis Briganti, 911 Amapala, and W. E. Walton, 2264 Sonoma, rated fourth with 395.

Bill Cates, 1413 220th, will have to read his football reports with greater care. His score of 808 was the highest of the week.

Three perfect picks—which means he called the correct number of points by which three teams won their games last week—were made by Bill's brother Richard. Cates. The following each picked two correct differentials: Arthur Becker, Harbor City; T. A. Becker, 2042 242nd, Lomita; Isabel Shaw, 709 Borwick, and N. D. Smith, 2015 Martina.

Another Contest Starting

Another contest is now starting—the winner to receive two fine seats for the Idaho-U.C.L.A. game on Oct. 22.

Get your entry blank at any of these firms: J. Leppin, Shell Service at Carson and Border, Harwell's Service Station at Marcolina and Cravens, City Paint and Sporting Goods Store, Thrifty Bike, Key and Fix-it shop, Torrance Feed and Poultry store, Charlie Mitchell's Standard Station at Carson and Cabrillo, Ellwood's, Poppy Flower shop, Star Furniture company, Haig and Haig, Sandy and Scotty, Alcorn's Drug store, Firestone, Service Station at Cravens and Marcellina, Beacon Drug company, Torrance National Bank or the National Home Appliance company.

The next contest closes at 10 a. m., Saturday—mail or bring your predictions on the official entry to The Herald before that "deadline" and then watch next week's paper for the name of the winner.

Smith's Brother On Leave from Rangoon College

Life in Rangoon, Burma, India, is very similar to life in the U. S. with the exception of (1) taxes, (2) permits and (3) religious rioting, according to D. O. Smith who visited his brother, Alden W. Smith, local optometrist-jeweler, this week. D. O. Smith recently returned to this country from Rangoon with his wife and son. He is now studying for his doctor's degree in physics at Cal Tech and is living in Pasadena.

He has been engaged in teaching physics at Rangoon College, sponsored by the Baptist Foreign Missionary Society in conjunction with the British government for the past 12 years. This is his third trip back to this country and he will remain here for a year.

Taxes in India are unbelievably high, he said, and sometimes manage to wreck and ruin every wooden structure not periodically coated with creosote. Religious rioting occurs on an average of once a week as the many sects and creeds of India battle for one reason or another in the public streets.

Doans to Cut Cakes Saturday To Mark Store's Anniversary

Tomorrow the master baker of Hostess cakes will supervise the mixing of fine ingredients for two huge cakes which will be baked tomorrow night and attractively decorated and then rushed to Torrance for a sixth anniversary celebration. This event will be held at Doan's Market at 2233 Torrance boulevard where Mr. and Mrs. Lyle C. Doan will serve portions of the cakes as long as they last Saturday.

The Doans—Lyle and Hallie—have been Torrance residents for 10 years but they date their store anniversaries from the time they opened their own market on Torrance boulevard. Recently the local American Legion post elected Doan commander and he and Mrs. Doan have hundreds of friends here who will wish them many more years of successful business.

Doan, a native of Michigan, and his wife, who is a native daughter of California, opened their market in 1932 with one clerk—Ivan Bekersley, who is still in their employ. Today they have two other aides—Stanley Sach and Delaine Crook—to help serve the patrons of their grocery, meat and vegetable market. The Doans invite all their friends to "have a piece of cake with us Saturday."

After losing their first practice game to Leuzinger, 27 to 0, the Torrance Lightweight football team demanded a return engagement. Last Thursday the Class B squad journeyed to Lawndale and swamped the Leuzinger Bees 32 to 0.

Equipped with what is said to be one of the best lines on the Pacific Coast, the Loyola Lions will play Redlands tomorrow night at the Gilmore stadium in Los Angeles. Bobby Trezise, another local grad, has suffered a knee injury which may keep him out of Loyola games for the remainder of the season. Bill Acene, Torrance alumnus, has not seen action yet this season.
